"It's Delamore, so it must be Summer"

Delamore's 23rd year brings with it another fine exhibition of fresh art, including new works from around 200 sculptors and painters displayed in the house and gardens. We also welcome the return of Artizan whose artists appear in three gallery spaces including the introduction of a dynamic workshop programme which visitors are invited to join. Seen at their best during May, the truly magnificent gardens are an ideal backdrop for sculpture, while large, light rooms in Delamore House provide the perfect setting for paintings and other artworks. Our visitors are welcome to spend the day with us, take refreshments in the cafe and perhaps purchase one of the many pieces created by local, national and international artists.

Sally O'Neill - Frost in the Valley

Over 100 pieces of sculpture are thoughtfully placed throughout the spacious gardens and woodland. Enjoy a stroll along the tree-lined Millennium Avenue to visit the impressive cromlech or take a moment to sit quietly amid the many specimen trees, wonderful flowering shrubs and carefully tended flower beds.

Lucy Lutyens - Silent Meditation

The three galleries display paintings, sculpture and ceramics by some of our most prestigious artists while Delamore has always championed the work of new and emerging artists to ensure our commitment to showing fresh art every year.

*...and don't forget to visit our popular
Old Kitchen Café - open every day!*
